

Dear Parents,

This week, we are marking National Anti-Bullying week in school. The children will be involved in work in class to support this. We will be reminding them of the school's Anti-Bullying policy—sharing this with them in class, and reminding them of the importance of telling a trusted adult if they ever have any concerns of this nature.

As schools in St Neots, we have also be working together on an Anti-Bullying Charter for the town—and sharing this with the children too.

The children's tuck shop restarts at the end of this week—with our newly-formed tuck shop committee ready to sell to all year groups during break time. I know that the children will be pleased to see its return to Friday breaktimes.

Best Wishes,

Mrs Keefe

Y4 Egyptian Day

On Friday, 3rd November, we had Ancient Egyptian day at school. In the morning, we had three activities—we had a quiz, artefacts and a board game. In the afternoon, the man had a fake mummy which was Tutankhamen and he was taking out all the slimy things. Then we played a hunting game which was really fun and do you know, what made it funnier? We won! The jackals had 15 points and the hounds had 35 points!

I was really sad that we had to go home. Ancient Egyptian day was over!
